

The Giddings News

March 11, 1921

DIME BOX LOCALS

Rev. Bourne filled his regular appointment here Saturday night and Sunday afternoon at 3:30.

Misses Viola Houdek and Alene Stewart spent the week end in Giddings.

Mrs. Julius Polansky and son are spending this week in Austin.

George Kocurek and family of Deanville spent Saturday night and Sunday here.

Fayette Black, wife and baby visited near Caldwell Friday and Saturday.

R. B. Sample and little daughter are visiting relatives in Houston this week.

T. N. Reat went to Caldwell Sunday.

Asa Moses and family spent several days in Giddings recently.

Max Hannes went to Buckholts Sunday, return returned Monday.

Hugo Hannes of Buckholts is expected to move in a few days into his new home recently purchased from Mrs. Martha Etzel. Mrs. Etzel is moving into her new home - it was built by Oscar Christiansen and adds to the looks of our town quite a bit.

A. E. Karcher and John Burt Schell went to Caldwell Monday.

J. R. Henson, Mrs. John Stiles and Mrs. Albert Tyler went to Texas City Friday to see Mrs. I. G. Wood, who is very low with a cancer.

Mrs. A. E. Karcher, Mrs. Albert Karcher and sons, spent Monday in Giddings.

Ples Phears spent the week end in Giddings.

Edd Dorsett and wife of Caldwell spent Sunday afternoon here.

Joe Donath of Caldwell was here Saturday.

Grover Reat spent the week end in Giddings.

Miss Helen Etzel and Mr. F. G. Martin of Temple were quietly married in Caldwell March 1. A reception was given them that night at the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Etzel. They spent a few days in Dallas.