

The Giddings News

January 20, 1922

Dime Box Doings

Rev. Scott of Giddings filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

Robert Shanon spent the past week end with his grandmother, near Deanville.

Miss Lucile Hosea of Giddings visited her sister Mrs. Ples Phears, the past week end.

G. W. Dement of Caldwell was transacting business here a few days ago.

Ples Phears went to Giddings last Friday.

Mrs. George Kocurek and twin sons of Deanville came over Friday and spent a few days, Mr. Kocurek came Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Polansky and son visited in Deanville the forepart of the week.

Miss Lula Mae Phears was in Giddings Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wicks and children, Joe Schindler and son Fred of Schulenburg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Polansky Sunday.

Joe Spacek and sons made a business trip to Granger a few days ago.

Tom Kocurek Sr. visited relatives in San Antonio Saturday and Sunday.

J. T. Carlisle, Thos. W. Thompson and E. McIntosh spent a few hours here Tuesday.

Asa Moses went to Giddings Tuesday.

J. A. Reat and family from String Prairie spent Sunday here.

A committee from Lexington representing the "Old Maid's Convention" was here Tuesday and will bring the play here Friday night the 20th.

Asa Moses killed a hog last week that dressed 1020 lbs. one ham weighed 150 lbs. It was told that he bought all the cans in Dime Box to put the lard in. Who can beat it?