

The Giddings News

August 31, 1923

Church Dedication at Dime Box

A new Lutheran church was dedicated Sunday at Old Dime Box. A large crowd was in attendance for all day services, the building being crowded at all times with many persons outside.

The church is located on the site of the former post office and store buildings at Old Dime Box and is in a pretty location on a hill with numerous shade trees.