

The Giddings News

March 13, 1931

DIME BOX LOCALS

Joe Spáček, Sr., of Granger visited his sons, Adolph, August and Joe, here last week.

Mrs. Sallie Monroe arrived several days ago from Temple to be with her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Sample for a while.

Miss Lydia Horak, who has had a position in Waco, is now at home with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horak.

Mrs. Florence Fields of Giddings was here Monday.

Miss Rosalie Halsler of Houston is the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Halsler.

Miss Emily Reat was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Bailey Dowell in Caldwell Friday night and Saturday.

Eddie Riske and son Frank were in Giddings on business Saturday.

Mrs. Peters and Edwin and Mrs. C. W. Bridges and Harold went to Giddings Monday to have dental work done.

Joe Kocurek was in Temple Sunday.

Florace Jean, the small 2½ year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blaha, died suddenly Monday night after a short illness. They have the deep sympathy of the whole community.

Reporter.