

The Giddings News

July 3, 1931

DIME BOX LOCALS

Miss Lola Helmer of Houston is at home with her parents.

Dr. Lewis Malinak and Edwin Malinak of Houston visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. Martin Malinak Sunday.

Miss Alma Stewart, Mrs. W. R. Standefer and son Billy are spending this week in Houston in Mrs. Standefer's home.

Joe Spacek, Sr. and family of Granger, visited relatives here recently.

Mrs. J. S. Reat is here from Tanglewood spending the week at the home of J. T. Reat.

Byron Moses took Owen Reat, recently of Granger, Giddings Monday morning and he went from there to Houston where he has secured employment.

E. C. Kunze and family of Mission were recent visitors in the home of Ed. Riske.

Mrs. R. B. Stanley and daughter Miss Eula and Miss Esie Dalrymple of Spring Prairie spent several days here last week and attended the Baptist meeting.

Mrs. I. J. Fariss and Mrs. De Young of Giddings and Mrs. James Warren of Fort Worth were here for the day Sunday.

Tom D. Beard, wife, son Archie and daughter Miss Laura and the Meses Ellets from Burnett visited friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. John Burttschell of Giddings was a visitor here Tuesday.

Miss Louise Milburn of Giddings is the guest of Miss Ella Schuhmann.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Henson visited friends in Bartlett this week.

Miss Ruby Lee Watson of Austin is visiting relatives here.

Yegua Club Entertained

The Yegua Club enjoyed a delightful afternoon of "42" with Mrs. Adolph Maresh as hostess. The room was set with attractive bouquets of carnations, golds and zinnias. After nine games were played Mrs. Elder Burttschell was awarded a silver thimble as high score and consolation fell to Mrs. A. F. Spacek. Mrs. Maresh assisted by her daughter Marie, served delicious punch, cake, and pie to the members and visitors. Mrs. L. J. Kocurek and Miss Louise Milburn of Giddings.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Read

Entertain

Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Read of Dime Box entertained with a forty-two in honor of their niece Alpha Read who is visiting them from Dikol. The color scheme was carried out in pink and white making everything more beautiful. High score was awarded to Wilson Bridges and low score was given to Jason Baklik. Delicious refreshments consisting of devil's food cake and lemonade were served to the following: Alpha Read, Clara Burttschell, Meta and Carrie Riske, Frances Black, Marie Maresh, Frances and Bobbie Tipton, Emil Kubena, Malton Zuehlke, Monroe Hannes, Jason Baklik, Wilson Bridges, Charles Henson, Frankie Riske, Henry Maresh, Joe Houdek and Emmet Hannes. Every one seemed to have had a pleasant evening and left hoping that Mr. and Mrs. Read would soon entertain again.

Bunco Party

The largest crowd of the season attended a bunco party Sunday night June 28, given by Marie Maresh. Among those present were: Misses Bernice and Olga Kocurek, Annie Guszko Kaiser, Irma Lachsa, Ella Schuhmann, Ruby Lee Watson, Meta and Carrie Riske, Abbie and Alice McClellan, Clara Burttschell, Angeline and Alice Krenek, Messers Dan Schuhmann, Joe Spacek, Edward Belvan, Joe Houdek, Arnold Kocurek, Charlie Slovak, Perry Schmalzke, Henry Maresh, Emmet Hannes, Jason Baklik, Byron Moses, Malton Zuehlke, Wilson Bridges, and Edwin and Dr. Lewis Malinak of Houston. Miss Meta Riske was awarded first prize and best bunco player and Miss Angeline Krenek was awarded the booby prize. Everyone had a good time.

Reporter.