

The Giddings News

August 7, 1931

DIME BOX LOCALS

Lewis Zelenovitz and wife of Granger visited relatives here Sunday.

Miss Ella Schuhmann came home Sunday from a month's visit to relatives and friends in Houston, Huntsville, Sealy and Rosenberg. Miss Caroline Stern of Rosenberg came home with her for a visit.

Emil Kubena, Jesse Baklik, and Joe Houdek left Friday for Palacios where they are attending the encampment of the National Guard.

R. B. Sample and wife and J. H. Rogers and wife spent Saturday and Sunday in Marlin.

George Wheeler of Shreveport arrived here Friday afternoon and left again Saturday morning, taking with him his wife and little daughter, who had been visiting in Lee County several weeks.

Rudolph Spacek of Granger was the guest of relatives here Sunday.

Byron Moses and Arnold Hannes visited in San Marcos Saturday and Sunday.

Charles Henson, Gertie and Ernest Kissman, Misses Frances Tipton, Clara Wolf and Marie Kissman attended the short agricultural course at College Station last week.

Mrs. Frank Hannes returned to her home in McAllen, Monday after being ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Riske, for several weeks.

Wednesday, July 29, Mrs. Reed Henson entertained the club with "42". Pretty bouquets of flowers were placed about the room which added to the enjoyment of the evening.

After a number of games were played, Mrs. C. W. Bridges was awarded high prize.

Refreshments consisting of chicken salad, sandwiches, olives, stuffed eggs, potato chips, fruit jello and cake were served.

Tuesday evening the Yegua club entertained with two tables of "45" complimentary to their husbands and friends.

Games were played on the spacious lawn at the home of Mrs. Elder Burtischell. High prize, a set of dominos, was awarded to Reed Henson and consolation fell to Mrs. R. L. Burns.

Refreshments of cake, sandwiches and iced lemonade were served. Members and friends were also entertained by readings given by the Misses Oxfords of Elkhart, guests of Mrs. E. Tipton.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. McIver and son of Austin and Miss Carolyn Stern of Rosenberg.

—Reporter.