pendence Sunday.

Clarence Albers and family of Austin visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Joe Mallory and son Billy Mallory and his family of Freeport, spent a short while here one day last week.

Vince Balcar, Jr. and wife, Edward and Jodie Balcar, are visiting relatives in Oklahoma.

L. R. Reed and family, Frances, Kathryn and J. W. Black visited in the home of T. N. Reat in Marlin Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. Burns and family went to Cameron and returned Saturday.

Floyd Helmer and family of Houston visited relatives here, Sunday.

Miss Lois Dodd returned from Houston after visiting there a month.

Ernest Wallace and son and Bob Moore of Oklahoma were visitors here this week. They were citizens of Lee Co. years ago, this being their first visit here in 29 years.

Albert Schuhmann and wife are visiting Mr. Schuhmann's mother in Rowena this week.

Edwin and Wayne Peters spent several days in Burnet visiting.

Joel Cherry, wife and baby of Port Arthur are the guests of Reed Henson and family. Mrs. Cherry was formerly Miss Gilly Stiles of this place.

DIME BOX LOCALS

Mrs. Ruby McIver and son Clayton of Austin visited friends here the past week.

Otto Schreder, wife and baby visited Mrs. Schreder's parents Oswald Hanes and wife Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Elizabeth and Mary Oxford of Elkhart visited their aunt Mrs. Ed Tipton last week.

Mrs. W. R. Standefer and son and Scotty Henson returned to their home in Houston after spending several months here.

Prof. Edward Balcar visited friends in Granger Sunday.

Mrs. J. S. Reat is at the home of J. T. Reat for a while.

R. B. Sample and wife attended the celebration in Independence Sunday.

Mrs. L. J. Kocurek Entertains

A most delightful meeting of the Yegua Club was held at the home of Mrs. L. J. Kocurek when she was hostess to them. Flowers were arranged in the rooms where the three tables were placed for the games of "42."

After twelve games were played Mrs. Elder Burttschell received high prize and Mrs. J. A. Polansky consolation.

The hostess assisted by her daughter Miss Bernice, served pineapple salad, sandwiches, cake and orangeade to the members and the following visitors; Mesdames John Balcar, J. A. Polansky and Miss Marie March.

—Reporter.