

The Giddings News

October 2, 1931

DIME BOX LOCALS

Mrs. J. A. Polansky and two small daughters are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pape in San Antonio.

Mrs. R. B. Sample spent Sunday in Lexington.

Mrs. Floyd Helmer of Houston visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dodd.

Mrs. Alvona Loose returned to San Antonio Wednesday after visiting her sisters, Mrs. Adolph Hannes and Mrs. Max Buehhorn.

Charles Henson who is attending school in Temple, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bridges and daughters Anna May and Virginia and little son Harold, Mrs. A. W. McClellan and Miss Anna McClellan were in Brenham Sunday to visit Miss Alice McClellan who is in the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Riske and son Frank went to the home of Christian Jurische near Houston Tuesday on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Jurische who is Mr. Riske's sister.

Born to Frank Horak, Sr., and wife one day last week, a baby boy.

Yegua Club Entertained.

Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 23, Mrs. L. R. Read most delightfully entertained the Yegua Club. After twelve games of "42" were played Mrs. E. Tipton was awarded a lovely framed motto. Refreshments of cake, sandwiches and punch were served to the club members and the following invited guests: Mesdames W. Black, C. Tyler, A. Tyler, and Miss Ruth Reat.

Reporter.