Yegua Club.

A most enjoyable evening was spent in the home of Mrs. R. Burns who was hostess of the 42 club, Wednesday, Oct. 7. The rooms were decorated with lovely zinnias, roses and pot ferns.

Eight games of 42 were played, Mrs. W. Black winning high score and consolation fell to Mrs. Earl Wilkes. The prizes awarded were a box of dusting powder for high and a box of Eutex nail preparation for low.

Then the hostess served the following luncheon - chicken salad, stuffed eggs, olives, hot rolls, jelloed fruit, cake and punch was enjoyed by all.

Everyone left declaring the hostess a wonderful entertainer.
