

The Giddings News

November 6, 1931

DIME BOX LOCALS

T. D. Beard and family of Burnet visited friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Eddie Riske spent several days in Giddings last week.

Albert Crawford of Austin was the guest of friends here Sunday.

Miss Emily Reat and Harry Stallworth of Marlin spent several hours here Sunday.

George Owen of San Marcos and Misses Ola Moses and Maude Reat, who are attending S. W. T. C. in San Marcos, visited in the A. P. Moses home Sunday.

Charlie Hannes and family of Giddings were here Tuesday.

Joe Spacek and wife and daughter Lydia of Granger visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

C. O. Arendale and wife of Somerville visited Reed Henson and wife recently.

Mesdames C. W. Bridges, Edd. Tipton and Reed Henson spent a few hours in Lexington Monday.

Reed Henson and wife and Misses Frances and Bobby Tipton went to Somerville Sunday.

Rev. De Young of Giddings was here Sunday afternoon with Rev. Youngblood, a student of Baylor University who preached a very interesting sermon.

Rev. De Young and Rev. Baker were here at the church Tuesday afternoon, to assist the ladies in reorganizing the Missionary Society.

A very enjoyable occasion was spent at the home of C. W. Bridges Saturday night in honor of their daughter Virginia who celebrated her 13th birthday.

Yegua Club.

Mrs. Earl Wilkes entertained the club members with a 42 party Wednesday October 28. Lovely pot ferns were placed in the room which added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Several games were played and Mrs. Reed Henson was declared winner, receiving a comb as prize. Mrs. C. W. Bridges won low prize, a set of three handkerchiefs.

The following refreshments were served: salad, sandwiches, pickles, cake and hot coffee which was enjoyed by all.

The club will meet at Mrs. John Balcar Wednesday Nov. 4.

Reporter.