

The Giddings News

January 1, 1932

DIME BOX LOCALS

Garland and Miss Alene Stewart who came to Dime Box for the holidays, spent several days in Marlin with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pollock and son and Miss Edna Dube of Rosenberg visited their parents last week.

G. D. Reat and family of Pendleton spent Christmas with relatives here.

Mrs. Louise Hannes who has been living in San Marcos with her daughter, Mrs. Ramsel, visited relatives here and on String Prairie this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoffman and family of Houston visited homefolks Christmas week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Houdek of McCamey spent one day last week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Houdek of this place.

Dr. Louis and Edwin Malinek of Houston visited homefolks Christmas week.

Miss Leona Orsag, who is attending Blinn College, is at home for the holidays.

Maurice and Don Phears spent Christmas with heir mother here.

Miss Marie Maresh who is in nurses' training in San Antonio is at home this week.

Joe Houdek has gone to McCamey to work.

George Owen of San Marcos visited Miss Ola Mosca the past week-end.

Malton Zuehlke and Miss Clara Burttschell spent several days last week in Egypt, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jancik of Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Juergens and Mrs. Stern of Taylor spent Christmas day in the home of Mrs. Ernest Etzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McDonald of Giddings spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Herman Etzel.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Attaway, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Moses and son, Byron, went to Marlin Sunday to see their uncle, J. T. Reat, who is in the hospital. We are glad to report that Mr. Reat is showing improvement, and hopes to be home in another month.

Frank Kamak of San Antonio visited Miss Edna Dube here last week.

Charles Henson is at home for the holidays.

A. P. Moses received a large basket of Valley fruit from Arthur Wernecke of Mission last week. The oranges are the best we have ever tasted.

Reporter.