

The Giddings News

January 8, 1932

DIME BOX LOCALS

Joe Spacék, wife and daughter, Miss Lydia, of Granger, visited relatives here during the holidays.

Ray Dodd returned from Houston Friday, where he spent a week with his sister.

Floyd Helmer and family of Houston visited home folks here New Year's Day.

Christian Jurische and son Alvin from near Houston were here Saturday and Sunday. Wille Jurische who has been seriously ill in a hospital in Houston, came home, much improved, last Saturday.

Mrs. Ernest Hannes and little daughter Mona of Kingsville, were guests of relatives here during the holidays.

Prof. Edward Balcar spent several days in San Antonio, returning home Saturday night.

Elroy Weikel of Corpus Christi is visiting in the home of Wm. Blaha and family.

Hugo Hannes took his son, Arnold, to San Marcos Sunday where he will attend college this term.

Lydia Kuchera went to San Marcos where she will attend college again.

Frank Houdek left for Burnett last week, where he will be in the employ of the railroad. It is found that a pump station man will not be needed at Dime Box any longer.

C. W. Bridges and family visited friends in Burnet during the holidays.

Byron Moses took Miss Alene Stewart back to Austin, and his sister, Miss Ola, to San Marcos, Saturday, and remained over for a few days visit. He and Mr. Hannes both had to turn back to Giddings at Loebau Monday afternoon, on account of high water.

Mrs. Bev. Sample has gone to Houston to spend several weeks with her daughters, Miss Nora and Mrs. Hoffman.

Dime Box was visited by a veritable flood Monday of this week. Old time residents say they have not seen as high water in the past thirty years. An electrical storm accompanied the rain Monday night, and it outdid any New Year fire work display we have ever seen.

Repo.ter.