

The Giddings News

April 15, 1932

DIME BOX LOCALS

Arnold Hannes and George Owen of San Marcos were visitors here Saturday afternoon and Sunday.

Gains Huckaby and wife of Austin spent Saturday night and Sunday here.

Miss Ola Moses returned from a few days visit in Austin.

Guy Attaway and A. P. Moses made a business trip to Granger and Taylor Tuesday.

T. N. Reat, wife and sons Grover and Durwood of Marlin spent the week-end here.

J. A. Reat and wife of Granger and Misses Blanche and Doris Peebles of Lexington spent a few hours here Saturday.

Mrs. J. S. Reat and H. H. Reat of Tanglewood were visitors here Saturday and Sunday.

Grover Reat of Pendleton was here Saturday and Sunday.

S. E. Reat, wife and two small children of Granger spent the week-end here.

Mrs. W. R. Standefer and son Billy, Miss Ruth Reat and Scotty Henson of Houston were week-end visitors here.

Mrs. Louise Hannes and Miss Edna Brandes of San Marcos were here Saturday and Sunday.

John Stiles and sons Horace and Robert of Alexandria, La., visited in the home of Reed Henson this week.

Mrs. C. W. Bridges entertained the "42 Club" Wednesday, having three tables of players. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas, larkspurs and snap dragons, and a delicious luncheon course was served. Those attending were Mesdames Reed Henson, Edward Tipton, Aug. Spacek, Rushing Gantt, Elder Burtschell, Lewis Kocurek, Earl Wilkes, Peters, Claud Tyler and Misses Malta and Carrie Riske. Reporter.