

The Giddings News

May 6, 1932

DIME BOX LOCALS

Miss Clara Burttschell of Eldrige is visiting here.

John Knox of Giddings spent Monday here on business.

W. R. Standifer returned to his home in Houston Tuesday, after having spent several days here.

Miss Ola Moses returned Thursday from a visit to relatives in Houston and Rosenberg.

Miss Louise Milurn of Giddings was the week-end guest of Miss Ella Schuhmann.

Mrs. J. L. Burns of Jonesboro, Ark., is with her son Dr. R. B. Burns and family for a visit.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kiecke, Saturday April 30, a baby girl.

School closes here this week; Wednesday night a play was presented by the high school students entitled "The Girl Who Forgot," which did credit to those participating in it. Thursday night an interesting program was given by the grammar grades and the seventh grade graduation exercises were held. The graduates from grammar school are:

James Sample, salutatorian, Donald Knittel, Rudolph Horak, Marvin McComas, Virginia Bridges, Bettie Maresh, Ruby Rankin, Hattie Simek, Viela Dube, valedictorian.