CAUGHT
WEARING THE GOODS

A store at Old Dime Box was burglarized some time ago when numerous articles of clothing were taken, among them were overalls, underwear and nine pairs of shoes. One day last week, Constable Erwin Zwernemann and others went to where a funeral was being held on Copperas (above Dime Box) and saw some of the clothing on two young colored men. They were taken before a magistrate, confessed to ~~rob-~~bing the store and some of the goods were recovered. The parties Scrubie Wade and Charley Jackson who farmed on Craddock Branch, were lodged in jail.
