

The Giddings News

June 24, 1932

DIME BOX LOCALS

Garland and Miss Alene Stewart came from Austin Monday. Miss Alene remained here for a visit with friends, Garland returning that night to Austin, where he is attending the University.

Edward Balcar and Misses Ella Schuhmann and Eleanor Kaiser came from Austin Saturday to spend the week-end with home folks.

Charlie Thomas and family were guests of W. C. Hill and family near Giddings Sunday.

Mrs. Alfred Pape and children of San Antonio visited relatives here this week.

Mrs. Floyd Helmer and little daughter of Houston visited here this week-end.

Misses Lois and Lillian Dodd returned from a visit in Houston.

Maurice and Don Phears of Houston visited their mother Mrs. Callie Phears last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Etzel had as guests Sunday Manly Burttschell and family of Eldredge, Harold McDonald and wife of Giddings, Lester Ballard and family of Troup, and Green Martin and little son F. C. Martin of Temple, who remained for a longer visit.

Confirmation services were held at the Lutheran church here Sunday for a number of young people. They were: Ruby Riske, Helen Michalk, Elsie and Mamie Schmidt, Esther Marburger, Lydia Marburger, Ydia Wolfe, Emmett Hannes, Dinovar Eichler, Victor Nimitz, and Oswald Marburger. A bountiful dinner was served at the home of Eddie Riske and family at noon. The guests were: Ben Dube and family, Hugo Hannes and family, Misses Lydia Kuchera, Marie Kissmann, Wilson Bridges, and Grandma Eichler, Alfred Piacke and family, and Mrs. Emma McDonald and children of Giddings. This hospitality was very much enjoyed by all present.

Reporter.