

The Giddings News

August 5, 1932

DIME BOX LOCALS

Miss Annie Gussie Kaiser is visiting relatives in Austin.

Mrs. Sue McClellan and grandson Edward Stanley of Richland Springs are spending this week with relatives here.

Gaines Huckaby of Austin was a visitor here Sunday night.

Miss Elvira Reat of Granger and Grover Reat of Marlin are the guest sof relatives here this week.

Joe Spacek returned to his home here, after spending several days with his parents in Granger.

It was a shock to the community, when a message, saying that Miss Anna Bayer had died in Austin Monday, was received. Miss Bayer taught in our school the term before last, and last term at Hranice school, and made many friends in that length of time. Her family at Palge where she was buried Tuesday has everyone's sympathy in the sudden death of their daughter and sister. A number of people from this place attended her funeral.

G. E. U. Huckaby, a former resident of this county died in Austin Tuesday Aug. 2 at the Confederate Home and was buried Wednesday morning at the Scott cemetery. Those from away who attended the funeral were his daughter Mrs. J. V. Mallory and son Billy Mallory of Freeport, his niece Mrs. W. C. Hill of Giddings, I. J. Fariss and Rev. DeYoung and wife of Giddings, and a nephew G. L. Huckaby of Austin.

Reporter.