

The Giddings News

March 7, 1941

Billy who volunteered for military service and went from Houston instead of waiting for the draft as his time to go had been postponed. He was sent to Ft. Bliss at El Paso.

H. H. Reat and his mother were visitors here last Sunday.

Richard Maluska had the misfortune of shooting off two of his toes one day last week. In going through the screen door with the gun in his hand, the door slammed and caused the gun to fire, crushing the toes so badly that they had to be amputated. Richard is one of the school bus drivers, besides he is a shoe repairer. He will be unable to work for some time.

W. R. Standefer spent Tuesday at Clifton.

The "Dime Box Follies of 1941" was presented at the high school auditorium Tuesday night with a large crowd attending. It was very good and especially the last act which Mr. Williams wrote himself. It was entitled "Here and There" and was a sort of skit, picturing the World of Today in this country, impressing upon one, how wonderful it is to be living in a free country. It was very well given, taking in most of the high school students, at times touching, and again very humorous as some of the "horse and buggy" days were reviewed with absurd acts. Mr. Williams is to be

DIME BOX

Miss Agnes Tydlacka had the misfortune to fall, her crutch slipping from her hand, and injured her hip; she seems to be getting along very well, however.

Mr. Joe Milburn is the new manager of the Mutual Lumber Co. They have had their yard and office in the same place since the town of New Dime Box started 28 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Standefer spent several days in Houston last. They took their son commended in being the author of such an entertaining affair.

Mrs. Williams of Seguin is visiting her son W. B. Williams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Noack attended the celebration at Old Washington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grabein, T. J. Kyle, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kyle, all of Rockdale, attended the entertainment here Tuesday night.

Louise and Lewis Pampell celebrated their sixteenth birthday recently. At a late hour cake and coffee were served. All departed wishing them many more happy birthdays.