

The Giddings News

April 25, 1941

DIME BOX

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ruskey of Alvin, were visitors here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Standefer spent Sunday in Houston. Their son Billy met them there on a few days leave from Camp Bowie, returning here with them and leaving for Brownwood Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Harms and Miss Lillian Krenek visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Krenek here last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom D. Beard of Burnet spent Saturday night and Sunday here visiting friends.

Frank Hannes returned to his home in McAllen after a few weeks visit here. He was accompanied by his grandson Arnold Hannes and wife for a visit to relatives in the Valley.

Arnold Kocurek and family of San Antonio spent several days here visiting Arnold's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kocurek.

Mr. and Mrs. August Spacek and Mrs. Joe Spacek were shopping in Taylor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Hannes and little son Freddie, and Emmet Hannes of Lexington visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Hannes Sunday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McClellan of Austin were visitors here Sunday.

The Red Cross sewing has been sent out and quite a number of ladies are helping out in this good work.

Elder Burttschell, Asa Moses and Tom Henson are among the petit jurors from here in Giddings this week.

Rev. Hooter, Baptist pastor of Giddings, preached a very interesting sermon here Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. He was accompanied by one of his Giddings friends and members, Mr. Bushell. Rev. Hooter will preach again at the same place at 3 p. m. May 4th.