

The Giddings News

August 1, 1941

COTTON WORMS AT DIME BOX

Cotton worms are reported in spots on Dime Box prairie and poison is reported scarce. This is a very early date for the worms and since the cotton has grown a well sized stalk they can do much damage. Worms are also in cotton fields near Lincoln.
