

DIME BOX

Mrs. Willie Bage had a major operation at a Brenham hospital last week and is reported to be getting along fine but will very likely have to stay in the hospital for some time yet.

Mrs. Hattie Stockton of Giddings was a guest of Mrs. W. R. Standefer for several days last week.

Mrs. Eddie Riske had a minor operation in Caldwell last week and is getting along well at this time.

Mr. Frank Hannes of McAllen is visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Haisler of Taylor and Mr. Emmet Anschutz from here went to the rodeo in Huntsville Sunday.

A miscellaneous shower was given at the school auditorium Saturday p. m. for Mrs. Zwernemann who is a recent bride, the former Miss Leitko.

A shower was given Sunday p. m. by Mrs. Claud Tyler for Mrs. Gall, the recent Miss Mabel Buenger. She is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buenger, and they were married about 2 weeks ago. The groom's parents died when he and his brother were infants and they were reared by their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hannes, now also deceased.

Mrs. Reed Henson left Saturday for Texas City to visit her son Charles Henson and family who announced the birth of another daughter one day last week.

Mr. Hejl and family of Temple were week-end visitors of Mrs. Hejl's parents.

Our post office will soon be in a different place. Mr. Joe L. Kocurek is having another part of his store building (near the present post office) remodeled.

Painted, etc. and it will be larger and have more windows, and be altogether much nicer. It will soon be ready for occupancy.

W. R. Standefer and wife, G. M. Attaway and wife and Mrs. J. S. Reat visited in Tanglewood Sunday.

Mrs. August Spacek entertained the 42 Club Tuesday afternoon.

The ladies of the community are doing sewing for the Red Cross this week.

Frank Riske and mother Mrs. Edd Riske, Mrs. Frank Mikulin and Miss Vlasta and Miss Ruby Riske went to Houston Wednesday. Miss Ruby will remain in Houston and work for awhile.

Miss Frances Krupa, who is teaching school at Knobbs and Miss Annie Krupa, who is attending business college in Houston, spent the week-end with their mother, Mrs. Mary Krupa.

Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Malinak and children of Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fleckenstein of Bryan, and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Komar of College Station spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Malinak.