

DIME BOX

Miss Lorene Bage of this place and Mr. Sam Kadell, now of Georgetown were married in Giddings Saturday afternoon with a very simple ceremony. Lorene is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bage. She graduated from High School here in 1940 and has been working in the NYA home in Giddings some of the time since. She is a very sweet and charming girl. The groom is a supervisor in NYA work and is a very exemplary young man. They both have the wishes for happiness from many friends.

Mrs. Willie Bage is at her home here convalescing from her recent operation. Her friends are glad she is able to come home so soon after so serious an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Berndt of Houston visited Mrs. Berndt's parents Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Kocurek the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Reat and sons Grover D., Jr. and Dan of Jones Prairie visited Mrs. Houdek here Sunday.

Mrs. Edd Riske returned home Monday after visiting her daughter in Houston several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Smith of Port Neches spent from Friday night until Monday with Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Moses.

Mr. R. J. Smith of Caldwell visited here Saturday night.

Mrs. Ada Thomas is now employed at the school kitchen in place of Mrs. Milam of Lexington.

Miss Thelma Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Williams is attending a business school in Houston; Thelma was valedictorian of the 1941 graduating class here.

Garret Kissman and his sister Mrs. Marie Dube have bought a farm recently from

Mr. Edd Riske, near town. It is about a mile northwest of town and is part of the tract formerly belonging to the now deceased Guy M. Bryan of Houston. Mr. and Mrs. Kissman and family will also make their home with their children, Mrs. Dube and Garret. They have built a nice new 6-room house on the place near the highway and are now building a barn and it will soon be ready for occupancy.

Mr. Ed Riske has rebuilt his at his home place about a mile from town and it is quite an addition in appearance and convenience to his pretty country place.

Mr. Guy M. Attaway has recently done some remodeling to his home which is situated on the former J. T. Reat farm. He tore away the old kitchen and dining room to the place and added new rooms, making them larger and added a bath room. He has not completed the work as yet, however.
