

The Giddings News

November 14, 1941

DIME BOX

Mrs. Leonard Mikulin is in the hospital in Brenham where she recently had a major operation. Her friends and relatives hope for her speedy recovery.

Mesdames C. W. Bridges and Rushing Gantt visited in Coupland one day last week.

Mr. S. E. Reat from near Temple spent several days visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Krenek and baby of Giddings visited Mrs. Krenek's parents Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Peters over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Reat of Marlin, and their daughter Mrs. Maynard Belson and little Genevieve of Port Arthur were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Standefer several days this week.

Among those from Giddings attending the funeral of Mr. Wm. Grundmann were: Mesdames Richard Zuehlke, Herman Etzel, Claud and Quintus McIntosh, Annie Beaman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harms, Mr. and Mrs. John Burttschell, Herman Luecke and I. O. Rohrer.

Herbert Placke of Cross Plains was a Dime Box visitor Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Malinak of Houston visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Martin Malinak.

Miss Frances Krupa of The Knobbs, and Miss Anne of Houston, their mother, Mrs.

Mary Krupa over the week-end.

Mrs. Mary Krupa had her tonsils removed last Friday.