

The Giddings News

December 19, 1941

DIME BOX

Edwin Marburger had an attack of appendicitis last week and went to the Albert Schuhmann hospital at East Bernard. Dr. Schuhmann treated him and thought he could avoid an operation, and he returned home in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Standefer spent the week-end in Houston and Rosenberg. Mrs. J. S. Reat returned with them from Rosenberg.

Ed. Peters left last week for the Army. He was the butcher here and made a good one, but answered the call of his government cheerfully and will also make a good soldier. Ellis Peters, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Peters, is running the meat market now.

Albert Weideholdt left for volunteer military service but it was reported that one of his eyes was defective so he had to come back home.

Prof. E. W. Schuhmann of Houston visited his brother, Mr. Albert Schuhmann here over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Helmer received a message from their youngest son Earl, that he is safe. He is somewhere in the Navy.

Little Ethelbert Nicholas Spack was able to return from the hospital in Brenham, having sufficiently recovered from his appendectomy.