

The Giddings News

February 13, 1942

DIME BOX

Rev. Smith, a recently returned Missionary from China delivered a lecture at the Presbyterian church here last Wednesday p. m. It was a message that impressed upon us as a Christian people, the necessity of missionaries to preach the Gospel to the people of the Chinese nation after the war as there are so many people there who are heathens and there has always been such a comparatively few missionaries, and it takes so long to accomplish results with people of such nationalities.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley of Sundown, Texas, visited Mrs. Thomas and children and in the Charlie Stanley home over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kyle were called to Cameron Saturday to the bedside of their son Willie Hurse Kyle who had an appendectomy in the Cameron hospital. Mr. and Mrs. James Kyle are with him at this time and report that he is doing as well as could be expected.

Among those attending the funeral of Clifton Etzel in Giddings Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bridges, Mrs. Martha Etzel, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Zuehlke and others.

Miss Olga Kocurek of East Bernard and Josephine and Jodie of Austin were week-end visitors at their home town.

Ernest Allers of Austin visited his parents over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Smith of Pt. Neches were week-end visitors of Mrs. Smith's parents Mr. and Mrs. Asa P. Moses.

Farmers are most of them very well up with their work. Rain is needed in places for stock water, in cisterns and for gardening.