

The Giddings News

March 20, 1942

DIME BOX

Mrs. G. M. Attaway honored her sister Mrs. W. R. Standefer with a bridge party Saturday night, the occasion being Mrs. Standefer's birthday anniversary. The guests included Messers and Mesdames G. C. Kaiser, C. W. Bridges, August Spacek, W. R. Standefer.

John Krenek and Miss Gardenia Krenek, who have positions in Houston, spent the week-end with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Krenek.

Jodie Kocurek of Texas Univ. was home Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Judith Spacek, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ad. Spacek left recently to attend business college.

Miss Vera Thomas who lives in Giddings is visiting her mother Mrs. Ada Thomas this week.

Mrs. Erwin Harms of Houston was a week-end guest of her parents Mr and Mrs. Joe Krenek.

Miss Geraldine Polansky, student at Huntsville Teachers' College visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Polansky.

Mrs. W. R. Standefer is visiting friends in Houston for several days.

Mrs. A. P. Moses left Wednesday to visit her daughters in Port Arthur, Port Neches, and Houston.

Miss Irene Kiecke, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kiecke of this place, a recent bride, visited here Sunday. Miss Irene is quite an accomplished young lady and has had a good position in an office in Austin since she finished her business course there several years ago. Congratulations to the happy couple.

Charles Henson and family of Texas City visited Charles' parents Mr. and Mrs. Reed Henson several days recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tietjen and Miss Clara Mikulin of Houston spent the week-end with their parents Rudolph Mikulin and wife.

Floyd Helmer of Houston visited his family here the week-end.