

The Giddings News

August 7, 1942

DIME BOX

Miss Betty Maresh left for Kingsville Sunday, after spending her vacation with her mother here. She is employed in a bank in Kingsville.

Mrs. O. A. Kyle and son Gene are spending a while on their farm near Rockdale, doing some improvement there.

Lloyd Gantt and Henry Maresh were among the ones who went to San Antonio last week for their last physical examination for army service.

Mrs. Laura Huckaby is visiting a daughter near Duncan, Okla.

Mrs. Rudolph Mikulin visited her daughters in Houston last week.

S. E. Reat from near Temple was a visitor here recently. His little son, Cecil Travis, returned home with him after a 2-weeks' visit here with relatives.

Mrs. Maurice Ward and daughter of Houston were recent guests of Mrs. W. R. Standefer.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Helmer attended the wedding of their son Earl in Houston last week. Earl is in the navy and was married while on leave for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Standefer had as guests the past week-end their son Billy of Texas City, and Misses Ruby Kopecky and Shirley Benson of Houston.

Mrs. Harry Noack visited her husband in Austin last week.

Mrs. Effie Brewer of San Antonio visited friends here recently.

Mrs. W. B. Stith and little son David and Miss Ruth Reat left for their home in Rosenberg Sunday after a two weeks' visit here with Mesdames W. R. Standefer, G. M. Attaway and A. P. Moses.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Helmer have as guests this week, their daughter Miss Lola, their granddaughter Lola Ruth and her friend Eleanor Gaugler of Houston.

Sgt. Wayne Peters and family of Ft. Sam Houston visited Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Peters here over the week-end.

Mrs. James Kyle of Houston spent two days here last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Moses.

Guy Garland Attaway left recently for Houston seeking employment and secured a position with Bell Telephone Co. beginning work in a few days after arriving in Houston.

Congressman Lyndon Johnson spoke to a large crowd of people Monday afternoon at 4:30 at the S. P. J. S. T. Hall here. His talk was very impressive and to the point and was very much appreciated by his audience.

Born: Monday night, Aug. 3, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stanley, a baby girl. Congratulations.

Miss Vera Thompson is home from Pt. Arthur for a visit. She expects to enter nurses training at St. Mary's Hospital in Pt. Arthur in September.