

DIME BOX

Our Red Cross First Aid Class which has been conducted by Mrs. August Spacek, closed Tuesday, with fifteen students completing the course. Mrs. Spacek is an able teacher, and all who took part in this class have been greatly benefitted. In times like these, when doctors and nurses are so scarce, we need to know a few things about how to take care of the human body, and we appreciate the unselfish efforts of our teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Phears and daughter Wanda Lyn of Houston are on their vacation and are visiting Mr. Phears' mother, Mrs. Callie Phears, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Smith are announcing the birth of a daughter, Andrea Elizabeth, of Port Arthur, Sunday, Aug. 9th. Mrs. A. P. Moses has gone to Port Arthur to see the new granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Swiske have moved back to Dime Box.

Betty Ann and Mary Lou Polansky of Caldwell are visiting their grandmother Mrs. Callie Phears.

Oswald Marburger who is a soldier at Camp Barkeley, came home for the week-end.

Ernest Albers was home on Monday and told his parents that he is going into the service of the U. S. A., choosing the field of radio. He will take a four-months course in this subject at Blinn College in Brenham, before he goes into the armed forces.

Mrs. J. S. Reat, Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Attaway and Mrs. W. R. Standefer spent Saturday in Lexington in the home of J. A. Reat.

Messers E. W. and Rhinehardt Schuhmann, two former Dime Box men who are now professors in the University of Houston, came up for a visit with their brother, Mr. Albert Schuhmann, Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. E. W. Schuhmann accompanied them.

Mr. Lloyd Gantt left Tuesday for San Antonio, where he will go into the service of his country.

Mrs. Ada Thomas spent Saturday and Sunday in Caldwell with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Stanley.

Miss Everett has sent in her resignation as English teacher in our school. We will miss her in the fall, when the school bell rings, for she has been with us a long time and has done some splendid work here, but she has a good job in Houston, and we wish her good luck.

Cotton picking is getting under way, and the next few weeks will be busy ones. We are having good weather for the cotton farmer, but pickers are scarce.

Mr. and Mrs. Harzke of Carmine spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harzke.

Miss Rosalie Mitschke of Austin spent Monday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Mitschke.

Walter Mitschke and family of Beukiss visited Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Mitschke Sunday.

Mrs. O. A. Mitschke and daughter Rosalie visited Mrs. John Schulze who is very ill.
