

DIME BOX

Our Home Demonstration Club sent Mrs. Joe Spacek as a delegate to the State Convention held in Ft. Worth, Aug. 18-20. She is representing the Lee County Club, as well as our local club. We are sure she will bring home an interesting report.

Friends of Mr. Julius Polansky were invited to help him celebrate his birthday, on Tuesday night Aug. 18th. This was a game party and everyone had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wallace and son Wendell of Clifton and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Standefer of Sugarland came Friday and stayed until Sunday p. m. in the home of W. R. Standefer.

Wayne Thomas came home from Ink's Dam, one day last week, to get a minor's release, so he could go to work on a job at Corpus Christi.

Mr. Rushing Gantt, who has been a clerk at Frank Mikulin's Grocery for several years, will move on the Ernest Marburger farm, four miles south of town, where he will help his father with his farm work, and take care of his cattle. We will miss him in the grocery store, but we hope they will be happy in their new location.

Mrs. J. S. Reat, Mr. and Mrs. Guy M. Attaway, Mrs. Oswald Marburger and Mrs. W. R. Standefer made a business trip to Giddings Monday afternoon.

Mrs. August Spacek was in Giddings Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Zwernemann were in Giddings Monday afternoon.

business.

Mrs. W. R. Standefer took some calves to the cattle ring last Saturday.

Cotton picking is in full swing.

School will open about the middle of September, which is not so far off, and we are going to be proud of six dozen new folding chairs that have been bought for our auditorium.

Our school board met last week to elect teachers, but we haven't learned who will fill three vacancies caused by the resignation of Miss Everett. Mr. Cody Kiecke and Mr. Ed. Krenek. Mr. Kiecke is in the army and Mr. Krenek wants to give more time to his farm.
