

The Giddings News

October 16, 1942

DIME BOX

Don and Elmer Phears and families of Houston visited their mother, Mrs. Callie Phears here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Polansky of Caldwell were Sunday guests of Mrs. Phears.

Mesdames Eddie Witte and children and George Krenek and little son, all of Giddings, visited their parents here recently.

Frankie McClellan, youngest son of Mrs. Rushing Gantt is working in Austin now.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Attaway had as week-end guests, Mr. Attaway's two sisters, Mrs. Berta Woodfin and Mrs. Reese Gansport, La., and their son Pfc. Wallace Attaway and wife from Camp Beauregard, La., and their son Guy Garland Attaway of Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Houdek of Denver City, visited their mother Mrs. Houdek here last week.

Messers Andrew Smith and George Owen drove up from Port Arthur Sunday morning, coming after their wives and children, who had been with their parents Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Moses for a visit. They all returned to Port Arthur Sunday p. m. Mr. Smith is a "ship fitter" at an Orange shipyard and Mr. Owen is a teacher at De Queen school in Port Arthur. They say it is hard to keep down to 35 miles an hour driving but it can be done, tho' it makes 258 miles a long trip.

Billy Standefer of Texas City and Miss Ruby Kopeckey of Houston visited Billy's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Standefer here Saturday night and Sunday.

It is very dry here now and a good rain is badly needed.

Some sewing will be done for the Red Cross here again soon.