DIME BOX

Mrs. Roy Stanley and little daughter Linda Lee left recently for Morgan City, La., where Roy is employed by an oil company.

Mr. S. E. Reat of Troy visited his sisters Mesdames A. P. Moses, W. R. Standefer and G. M. Attaway several days.

Miss Frances Krupa, a teacher at Blue, visited home folks this week-end.

A. P. Moses, M. B. Moses and Maurice, Jr. were in Kyle one day last week on business.

The bazaar given here at the S. P. J. S. T. Hall Armistice Day was very well attended and patronized. Young men who are in the U. S. service were honored by having pictures of all of them that could be obtained on display at C. W. Bridges garage in Dime Box Nov. 11. They are a handsome looking group of young men and every one is proud of them being in the service of our country. Judge John Simmang delivered a very patriotic talk in the afternoon, reviewing the history of the U. S. A., and the Dime Box High School Band played a number of stirring patriotic numbers.

Rev. John A. Melver of Austin preached here in place of Rev. Hooter, Baptist pastor of Giddings, Sunday p. m. It was a pleasure to hear Rev. Melver as he was a former schoolmate of several of our citizens and all were glad to hear his message.

Farmers are busy plowing, getting the land ready for another crop.

Miss Lela Pearl Stamps visited friends in Huntsville recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lehman of El Centro, Calif., visited Mrs. Lehmann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bage here last week.
