Mrs. P. A. Helms

Heavy Rainfall

Saturday night this community had a very heavy rainfall, which did damage to some of the fields and roads. The school bus was unable to get the children on the end of the line because of a faulty bridge.

Ready for Harvest

Peanuts are ready for harvesting, so we are hoping for some sunshine.

Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cornell returned from a nice trip which took them over a distance of 1700 miles. They traveled through the valley, Del Rio, Carlsbad, and Old Mexico. They visited Mrs. Cornell's sister in New Mexico. They came home last Tuesday night, and Saturday night and Sunday they visited relatives in Beyerville.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Edwards and Shirley were Lexington visitors.

Visitors at the A. L. Turnipseed home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Barnett and daughter of Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Turnipseed and family, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Edwards and daughter.

Brothers P. A. and J. V. Helms left early Saturday morning to resume studies at the University of Corpus Christi. Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Helms Sr., Charlene and Crawford accompanied them back. They returned home Sunday evening.

Guy Browning of Houston spent the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Browning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Wiley and family of Austin were visitors in the P. A. Helms home Sunday. Little Wanda Wiley, the polio victim whose picture all of you have seen on posters throughout the nation, was with her parents. She is now able to go without her crutches, but her leg is still in braces. The oldest sister, also a polio victim, is still in a hospital, unable to walk, but takes her schooling and is planning to graduate this year.
