

The Giddings News
February 18, 1921

FEDOR NEWS ITEMS.

Farmers are busy putting their land in planting condition, for corn planting time will soon be here.

Several of the young folks of Fedor attended the roping contest at Giddings last Saturday.

Ernst Wolfe Jr. and Miss Tillie Jenke were married at the home of the brides' mother, Mrs. Emil Jenke, last Monday afternoon. After the ceremony the guests all gathered at the brides home where the table with all good things to eat was awaiting them.

All those that were present enjoyed themselves no little and departed after extending best wishes for many happy days in their new life.

Some of the young folks of this community attended the dance at Drosches, near Lexington, Saturday nite.

"JIM & SLIM."

Come again, Jim and Slim, we will be glad to hear from you often, and the next time you are in town if you will call at the News Office we will supply you with stationery, stamps & Envelops which you may write often. We shall be glad to hear from other communities where we have now have no correspondent and shll be glad to furnish all stationery if any one desires to send in the happenings. --Ed.