

The Giddings News

July 17, 1942

FEDOR

John Winkler was surprised for his birthday Sunday with a big barbecue dinner. Those present were: Henry Kalmbach, Arthur Iselt and families, Eleonor, Hildegard, Gotthelf and Herbert Winkler; and in the afternoon Alwin Winkler and family and Lawrence Tolkmitt.

Miss Gertrude Herzog returned home Sunday from the Brenham hospital.

Miss Erna Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schneider was taken to the Brenham hospital Sunday for an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. John Winkler spent Saturday night in the home of Alwin Winkler.

Miss Norma Winkler was bitten by a copperhead Friday night. The snake was in a bale of hay. She is improving a little at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yurk and daughter and Ewald Winkler spent Sunday afternoon at Lexington.

Johnie Winter and family of Thorndale spent Sunday with relatives here.

Miss Erna Winkler is working in Giddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Drews and daughter and Miss Erna Winkler of Giddings spent Friday night in the home of Henry Polnick and family.