Beber Edule

Der Regen war nicht von "Babpe". Unfere Landwirte fleben jeht; "Berr, halte ein mit beinem Segen." Die Erdung (peanut) ist hier König, nicht die Baumwolle.

Mm 26. Ceptember flarb in Beft. Laplor im Caufe feines Cobnes Max Berr Bilbelm Thaler. In Detmold Teutidlend 1865 geboren, fam er in feinen jungen Jahren noch bem gelobten Banbe, grundete im Berein mit Andern die Anfiedlung Detmold in Milam County, Sier woonte er bis iba por furtem - ble isclfin war ibm foon bor langen boranigegangen, bai Alter many ju feinem alteften Bolme IN Ilebes. Baftor Meier bon Tetmort martele am Connabend feines Amies, Trei Bobne, Mar, Berbert, Martin und 1 Tochter, Renote Beife, olle in ober bei Taulor mobnbaft, find die nachften Binterbliebenen. Diefen fende id bierum mein aufrichtiges Betleib. - Die baben einen guten Mann begraben und mir toar et mebr."

Mit Gruß an Alle,

Fedor School

The rain was not from "Pappe." Our farmers are now pleading, "Lord, hold back your blessing." Peanuts are king here, not cotton.

Mr. Wilhelm Thaler died in West Taylor at the home of his son on September 26. Born in Detmold, Germany in 1865, he came to this blessed land in his younger years, and founded, along with others, the settlement of Detmold in Milam County. There he lived till recently when, due to his age, he had to move to his oldest son (his wife had preceded him a long time ago). Pastor Meier from Detmold had served him in his old age. His nearest survivors are his three sons, Max, Herbert and Martin, all of whom live in Taylor. To them I am sending herewith my sincere sympathy. "They have buried a good man, and to me he was even more than that."

With greetings to all

Rt. 1, Lincoln

F. Kloppe

Translated by Ed Bernthal