Special Correspondence to the News

Here I come again after a few months absent.

The cotton crop in this community will be very short this year.

Wm. Mueller and family, Ed. Kunschick and family of Bastrop, Mr. Paul Baasen and Miss Annie Harms were guests at the home of Mr. Henry Baasen and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Eschberger and Wm. C. Eschberger and family spent Sunday at Chas. Kurth's.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Erich Fischer, a little baby boy.

Wm. Saegert and family visited Mr. and Mrs. A. Krempf Sunday.

Misses Louise and Emma Laake spent Sunday evening with the Misses Kurth.

A crowd of young folks enjoyed some pleasant hours at the home of Mr. Henry Baasen Sunday night.

Good luck to the News and its many readers.

"Smiles."

The habit of "putting it off" has caused the loss of many lives. A dose of Prickly Ash Bitters at the first sign of indigestion, constipation and kidney trouble wards off sickness and saves money. Men who are good managers should always keep a bottle on the shelf at home. Price $1.25 per bottle. W. E. York & Co., Special Agents.
