George Waitman has moved into his new residence.

A good many of our people visited Serbin and other places, it being Easter.

Dime Box: Dr. R. H. Womack has embarked in the livery business at Lexington.

Pomona Grange at Paige. The Lee County Grange met at Paige April 4. The morning session was given to the welcome address read by Miss Lillie Prayor of Paige Grange. The response was by A. F. Teague. The afternoon was taken up by numerous addresses and resolutions. We would especially remember the address of brother Dunbar, which dwelt mainly upon the importance of a course of training in our public schools; especially adapted to the wants of the agricultural classes. At night a class of eighteen received the degree of Pomona.
