

The Giddings News

May 16, 1941

50 YEARS AGO

From the Giddings News,
May 15, 1891

H. S. Northrup of Belton was in the city.

Mr. Bud Gohlman returned from Houston Sunday.

Dr. Merchant was in McDade Wednesday on business.

P. A. Pampell of Serbin was in town Wednesday.

Frank Mundine of Lexington was down Monday.

Joe W. Beaman paid us a pleasant call Monday.

Miss Addie Carothers of Taylor is visiting in the city.

Russ West, one of Belton's young men, was in the city.

Miss Eva McGuire returned from Gatesville this week.

V. B. Shearin of Darden Springs was in town this week.

Don Phears of Lexington paid the News a pleasant call Monday.

Hugh McGuire of Brenham was in the city Monday attending court.

Mrs. Watson, accompanied by Miss Dot McRee returned to Brenham Saturday.

Gravel has been placed on sidewalks.

George Seay has sold out the Zael & Saettler stock of goods.

J. C. Hillsman and sons are in the lumber business.

Evelin, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cherry, died May 8.

The Lee Guards, N. A. Rector, Captain, will attend the state military encampment in July.

District Court.

10 petitions for divorce were filed. One application for citizenship. Three murder cases, one robbery, one horse theft, one case fraudulent disposition of property and two suits for partition were called.

Married, L. F. Kather to Miss Selma Schelnick, by Rev. Lou's Ernst, May 5. A grand ball was given them at Paige.

Married, Albert S. Tyler to Miss Annie Henson, May 12, Squire Seay officiating at the residence of T. D. Wesson. After the ceremony the happy pair repaired to the residence of W. J. Grant, where a very enjoyable "hop" was given.

Officers and directors of The First National Bank: Dr. J. A. Fields, president; P. M. Cuny, vice-president; E. J. Archinard, cashier; I. J. Fariss, Ed. R. Sinks, J. L. Rousseau, S. F. Wade. Capital stock $50,000.

Paige. — Paige was nearly deserted the past two days while folks attended the Mal-Fest in Bastrop. Racing and trotting were feaures. Monday was court day here. Judge Garwood, County Attorney Price and Mr. High Smith were here from

Bastrop.

Deannville. — Mrs. Dave Bowers has been visiting I. H. Bowers in Giddings. Miss Annie Patton and Gus Michel came with her. A drug store might pay at Deaville. Juarterly conference meets at this place next Sunday.

String Prairie. Cotton chopping is the order of the day. Wm Dalrymple will go to Archer City. Willie Stockton from Dime Box was on String Prairie this week. Rev. J. A. Stephens preached an eloquent sermon to a large and appreciative audience Sunday.

Rev. M. T. Sealy will preach at Early Chapel the 5th Sunday. The young people had an enjoyable "hop" at Mr. J. B. Mathis Friday evening.

Dime Box. — Crops are growing fine. The cold snap did little damage. Steps are on foot to organize a Long Prairie school. Your scribe saw in the pasture of Mr. E. E. Bryan some of the finest steers he ever saw; they were enroufe to Taylor.

