

The Giddings News

October 24, 1941

FIFTY-ONE YEARS AGO

From The Giddings News,

Oct. 24, 1890

C. A. Culberson spoke at the court house about his candidacy for Attorney General. He was in favor of Railroad Commission and opposed to the warehouse scheme.

This week two gentlemen from Missouri arrived and are prospecting about organizing a national bank. They expressed their surprise that a town of this size could get along without a bank.

M. T. Sealy, State Alliance lecturer, lectured at Concord, High Prairie, White Hall, Arendal, Lexington, Alford, New Hope, Knobbs, Smith Springs, Shady Grove, Red Hollow.

Thos. Adkins is having a new coat of paint put on his livery stable.