

The Giddings News

March 6, 1931

LIGHT SNOW SUNDAY MORNING

Early risers Sunday morning were greeted with snowflakes for a short time. They were thick in the air, but melted as soon as they reached the ground. They ushered in March 1 and gave us another wet Sunday, which makes the 8th wet Sunday out of nine this year. The snowfall in Giddings was followed by a rain accompanied by a brisk norther, almost blizzard-like in proportions. Fair weather has followed the snow, some of the older inhabitants say a snow is necessary to break the winter rains.