

Fifty-One To Receive Degrees

Supt. R. C. Donaho reports the senior class of the Giddings high school the largest in the history of the school. In 1934, forty-four candidates received degrees, and in 1939 there were 41. During the three years Superintendent Donaho has been at the head of the Giddings schools, the enrollment has increased from 147 in the high school to 212, and indications are now that the enrollment will exceed this number next year.

Candidates for graduation this year are:

Fae Beaman, Norma Bloh, Lloyd Daniels, Elwood Domaschk, Velma Lee Drews, Harry Droemer, Dolores Heyser, Catherine Holtkamp, Arvin Jackson, Elvis Jaster, Herbert Jenke, Leander Fuchs, Harry Hempel, Ruth Karcher, Kermit Kieke, Ruth Killan, Richard Kipp, Paul Knobloch, Herbert Liberty, Jerome Light, Emmitt Mahlmann, Marcella McDonald, Martin E. Meitzen, Bernice Michalk, Wise McKeown, George Moore, Virgil Mott, Walter Neumann, Rosemary Peters, Elkanah Preuss, Elmer Redkey, Elsie Schueler, Edgar Schultz, Evangeline Siebel, Monroe Sieglich, Billie Ruth Storm, Charlotte Tipton, Lois Tisdell, Gerardo Vega, Linna Vega, Hazel Waterman, Bernice Winkler, Mamie Winter, Charlie Witte, Emilie Woelfel, Angelina Wolf, Ruby Wolff, Robbie Zwernemann, Arnold Zscheck, Lorene Hempel, Milton Woelfel.