

Lee County folks are still talking about the Cavalcade put on at the recent Lee County Fair, which no doubt, was the biggest show ever put on in Lee County.

One of the most impressive scenes in the Cavalcade was the coming of the Wends, a small group singing religious songs, as shown in No. 1. The picture depicts the reason these people, led by the Rev. John Kilian, came to this country, religious freedom.

No. 2 is a picture of the famous Lehman band directed by Mr. Henry Lehman. This band, no doubt, brought back to many, memories of bygone days.

No. 3 is the scene of the first wedding. The preacher performing the ceremony is 'Grady' Alexander and the couple is Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Snow.

No. 4 shows the stage coach on which Gen. Sam Houston and his daughter rode for a visit to Lee County.

In No. 5 you have a picture of the first store in Lexington, the J. E. Dodd Store. The store served also as post office and the scene depicts the arrival of the mail which was delivered on horseback in those days.

No. 6 is a picture of the old Grange Store in Giddings, a landmark in Lee County for many years. The clerk in charge of the store is Martin E. Schmidt, owner of Schmidt's Men's Wear. Looks like he is doing a good business.
