

The Giddings News

March 3, 1950

Mrs. Bobo Named
President of Community
Planning Council

Mrs. C. C. Bobo, Giddings postmaster, was unanimously elected president of the community planning council Friday night at the council's annual dinner meeting.

Dr. Thomas B. Blackwell, University of Texas vocational guidance counsellor and clinical psychologist, spoke to the group on psychological types of persons and the need for more work toward mental health over the state.

Miss Lillian Peek, homemaking teacher, spoke on the progress made by the council over the past two years. Mrs. Ira Dippel, head of the nominating committee, reported the new nominees for offices and read a tentative constitution and by-laws for possible adoption by the body.

Leighton Snow was elected vice-president, Mrs. Emmett Hannes, secretary, Aug. Wolf, treasurer, Miss Lillian Peek, coordinator, and F. B. Curry, publicity chairman.

A chicken barbecue dinner was served to the group by Mrs. Dee Glover's homemaking class.