

The Giddings News

April 28, 1950

Girl Scouts Organize

A group of twelve girls met in Miss Peek's homemaking room Tuesday, April 4, with Mrs. R. B. Burns and Miss Elberta Kieschnick. Miss Kieschnick, who has been connected with Girl Scouting in Austin for some time, helped the girls organize a Scout Troop. The girls present were all between the ages of 12 and 14 and will be Intermediate Scouts.

The girls elected the following officers:

Emily Fariss, president; Carolyn Volkers, vice-president; Jane McIntosh, secretary; Mary Sue Burns, treasurer; Juanice Peyton, reporter.

They also decided to meet every other Tuesday and to pay monthly dues of 10 cents.

Others present included Nancy Bolsins, LaVonne Hill, Sue Willard, Diana Mae Witte, Shirley Albers, Becky Joiner, and Mary Kay Simmang.

After the meeting adjourned, everyone enjoyed refreshments.