

Giddings Students Make District Band

Pat Flynn, Carolyn Bohot, and Patricia Slocomb made the 92-piece district band at the Gonzales meet last Saturday.

Carolyn Bohot placed first and Pat Flynn placed second in the clarinet section, while Patricia Slocomb made the flute section.

Next Saturday, Jan. 17, Carolyn and Pat will enter the regional try-outs at San Marcos in their respective sections.

The winners of the first six places in each section are entitled to enter the regional try-outs.

Clarence Sawhill of the University of Southern California will be the clinician at San Marcos.

Winners of the first six places in each section at the regional at San Marcos will then enter the tryouts for a 100-piece State Band at Galveston in February.

Both Carolyn and Pat are freshmen members of the Giddings High School Band, under the direction of Michael F. Johnstone.
