

The Giddings News

March 26, 1953

Red Sox Will Repair
Airline Grandstand

Paul Spitzenberger and Herman (Slick) Gruetzner have been appointed to solicit contributions from businessmen and other baseball fans for the purpose of improving the grandstand at Airline Park for the coming baseball season, according to W. H. Pieratt, president of the Giddings Baseball Club.

Mr. Pieratt also announced that a practice game would be held next Sunday at 3 p. m. There will be no admission charge to this game.