

The Giddings News

August 18, 1922

Good Hope Meeting

The writer closed a most gratifying meeting at the Good Hope school house. We preached Sunday afternoon and every night from Monday to Friday night. We never preached to a more appreciative or attentive people anywhere, which made the preacher do his best. The visible results were 14 professions of faith, some heads of families, and nearly all town people. This work was begun one year ago. A good meeting was held then and a Sunday School established which has maintained its existence.

A number of friends from Giddings attended and rendered valuable aid in many ways. The writer was assisted by his daughters Misses Irene and Mabel who conducted the music, also Misses Winnie Grant, Willie Lou and Maud Heck and Mrs. Daisy Tate rendered splendid help by furnishing splendid songs.

The writer will continue to preach there every first Sunday in each month at 3:30 p. m.

W. W. Burr