

Good Hope items

We have been blessed with enough recent rains to see the pastures looking green with grass, and the stock is faring well.

The harvesting of the crops has been delayed some by the rains but with favorable weather and plenty energy all will be well in the near future.

Good Hope school is expected to open for this term on the 24.

Awalt Winters has been trying out most all the roads the last two weeks as he now sports a Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hill of New Ulm visited their home folks last Sunday.

Miss Agnes Wetterman attended the teachers institute in La Grange last week.

Mr. Elwood Sump has returned home from Waco where he is taking a business course.

Miss Augusta Mueller, Miss Myra Hill and Mr. Elwood Sump left for Austin last Sunday night where they will attend the teachers institute.

Mr. Richard Liebscher is on the sick list.

Mr. Walter Mueller and Mr. Alex Matejowsky of Nechanitz were in Good Hope neighborhood Sunday.

Master Dougless Hill fell from a tree Monday and at first it was thought his spine was seriously injured. A present he is doing nicely.

Citizen