

The Giddings News

December 14, 1923

Good Hope Items

It would seem more appropriate to say Good Hope Lake as we cannot see the earth inly in a few places. It is often said that a person can get used to anything, but it hasn't been the case this time, of getting used to wading water in winter time, very thankful that it isn't freezing with this much unneeded wet spell.

Mrs. Gussie Woodcock of Dallas is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Liebscher.

John Fischer and family from Snyder have moved into this neighborhood on Mrs. Emma Fischer's farm - welcome to them.

Herbert Bach and family moved this week to the Concord vicinity. We regret to lose them from our midst.

August Schroeder and children left this week for Lubbock their future home. We wish them every success.

Elwood Sump visited home folks the past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Siebel visited home people this week-end.

Chas. Alexander visited in Warda Sunday.

A. T. Alexander is having his residence recovered.

The infant recently adopted by Curt Berger and wife died Friday, after a short illness. They have our sympathy in this sad hour.