Grassyville Locals

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bright left July 30 for an auto trip to the eastern part of Tennessee, but they went in their car only as far as Dallas and then continued by rail.

Mrs. L. W. Stuessy and children spent a week with relatives in Medina County.

All the farmers of this section are very busy now. Cotton is opening rapidly and the farmers desire to pick it as soon as it opens. It is very dry here and a good rain would be very beneficial.

Last Monday Mrs. Henry Dunk had a family re-union on the old homestead. All the children and most of the grand children were present.

During this week the Methodist church is conducting revival services in Paige every night. Rev. L. U. Spellman of Yorktown, Texas, is preaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gersch took an auto journey to Port Arthur week before last.

Mr. R. F. Peschke brought the first bale of cotton to the local cotton gin.

Rev. J. A. Raesner and wife spent several days at the parsonage at the Methodist church. Rev. Raesner filled the pulpit there last Sunday morning.

A number of families of Copperas Cove section visited friends and relatives in the Grassyville community.
